TEAM NOTES

- Whitecaps are two games below .500 for the first time since 2002, when they were 10-12-5 just before winning their final regular season game on September 2. The last time prior to this season that Vancouver had a losing record was 2003, when the team was 3-4-2 before winning on June 14.
- Defender Wesley Charles was released by the club this past week following an incident in training. It was the second time this season Charles had violated team rules.
- 28-year-old defender Justin Thompson left the club on June 11 to pursue other business opportunities.
- This is Vancouver's 23rd consecutive season of professional soccer. Whitecaps are the longest running pro soccer club in US and Canadian history, and are defending USL-1 Champions. 2009 also marks 35 years since the Whitecaps inaugural season in the North American Soccer League.
- Head coach Teitur Thordarson is a former Iceland international with 20 years of professional European coaching experience, including eleven in Norway's top flight, and head coach of Estonia's National Team (1996-99).

PLAYER NOTES

- Goalkeeper Jay Nolly has played every minute this season. His last game was the 50th in his Vancouver career.

He has also moved into sole possession of eighth place on the all-time appearances list, with 234, ahead of midfielder Doug Muirhead who played for Vancouver from 1987 to 1997.
- New signings this year include:
 - 32-year-old St. Vincent & the Grenadines international forward #9 Marlon James, the 2008 leading scorer in the Malaysia Super League.
 - 27-year-old American defender and MLS veteran #27 Jeff Parke from New York Red Bulls.
